

New Book Says Aberhart Unable To Grasp Subject

Technical Basis of Social Credit Not Understood by Premier Avers Author, and Writings Are Defective in Theory and in Practicality

SUMMING up his "interim survey" in his new book, Major Douglas says: "... I find myself in complete disagreement with those who regret that the adventure should ever have been embarked upon or suggest that it must inevitably fail. One of the most remarkable features of the situation is the unshakable grip which the idea of financial emancipation has obtained upon the western population, not merely in Alberta, but to a growing extent in British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. I do not believe that those populations will ever abandon the vision that they have seen. By a process of trial and error and with more or less struggle and suffering, the money-changers will be cast out of the Temple, and it will become impossible for human beings to sterve in the midst of plenty."

Major Douglas

Emphasizing the need of some changes in the Social Credit set-up in Alberta if his theories are to succeed here, Major C. H. Douglas' interim survey, "The Alberta Experiment" was released for publication in Britain Friday by Eyre and Spottiswoode (Publishers), Ltd.

DOUGLAS SAYS DEBT BROUGHT SOCRED VICTORY

Explanation of Party Victory Given By Economist

LONDON, May 29.—If an explanation of the Social Credit party victory in Alberta were required, it could be given in the word "debt," declares Major C. H. Douglas, former economic adviser to the province. In his new book, entitled "The Alberta Experiment," the political "revolt" of the province, Douglas maintains, was primarily attributable to the mortgaged condition of the population and to a state of affairs where a home brought about fabulous prosperity in the east, but left the western farmer relatively poorer than before.

POOLS LOADED Prices of manufactured goods, farm implements and building materials had risen. Wheat had fallen to a point below the cost of cultivation. The wheat pools were loaded with, unmanageable surpluses, the desire of the banks to utilize their gigantic reserves had enabled the farmers to take the inevitable collapse by constructing mortgages of every description.

Conditions became so intolerable, Major Douglas says, that homes were abandoned in cities such as Calgary and Edmonton, with property of the most modern and eligible type boarded up, because of taxation.

ABANDON FARMS In a province "essentially rich," this is what the economist says he found: "It is commonplace for a home-aster, after having put in 10 or 15 years of grinding labor, to abandon his farm to anyone who cared to occupy it and assume its debts as a tax."

The dispossessed family then moves to Edmonton or Calgary, to be kept at the expense of the community. It is against this background that the appeal of Social Credit, and its promise of dividends for all must be judged."

Legal Yields Still Gaping Over Edward

London Bureau of The Edmonton Bulletin and Winnipeg Free Press
LONDON, May 29.—The coronation is over after a burst of pageantry and glory never before seen in any part of the world, but in the sober aftermath of the cheering and rejoicing over the crowning of a new King and Emperor it is apparent that the five months just ended tend strongly to prove that the abdication of Edward VIII has settled nothing except the personality of kingship.

CROP OUTLOOK IN PROVINCE IS BRIGHTER

Beneficial Rains Have Fallen in Most Sections Since May 22

Crop outlook throughout this province is much brighter than in the earlier part of the month, as a result of beneficial rains which have fallen since May 22, according to the second annual crop report of the provincial agricultural department, issued on Thursday by Hon. D. M. Muir, minister in charge. The amount of rainfall has varied from one-quarter to almost two inches, even with comparatively small areas and benefits have been derived accordingly. All districts have had more or less rain with the exception of that portion of the southeast from Youngstown south to Brooks and south to Selkirk.

A small area north of the North Saskatchewan river from Wakarusa east, where no rain has fallen for some time, was also left out of the recent precipitation. Though present conditions are reasonably good, there is little reserve moisture except in the Peace River district and crop prospects are dependent upon precipitation at intervals through the growing season. Weather continues showery.

A limited amount of soil drifting damage has taken place at intervals through the growing season, but it now seems definitely checked.

SEEDING ABOUT COMPLETE Seeding is practically completed. The grasshopper menace has been checked by recent rains, the heaviest outbreak having taken place in the Claresholm district. Mixing stations continue to supply poisoned bait.

Alberta Ranchers Hit Heavily in Cattle Theft CALGARY, May 29.—Toll of cattle thieves in southern Alberta threatens to put a number of ranchers out of business unless there is a quick check on the depredations of the night range riders, according to Alfred Pfeiffer, of Pincher Creek cattle dealing, and Mr. Pfeiffer who is president of the Pincher Creek Stock Association, was steady on the increase and its losses have been heavy.

POPE STRESSES GRAVE THREATS FACING REICH

Seeks to Fortify German Church Against Goebbels' Attacks

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy, May 29.—Pope Pius sent to German Catholics today a special message "in the midst of very grave events" in the third week of the controversy between the Nazi state and the church. The pope, who will be 80 Monday, urged the church in Germany against a fierce attack by Dr. Joseph Goebbels, Nazi minister of propaganda, on the Catholic clergy at home and abroad.

"IMMORALITY" Goebbels delivered the attack before 30,000 Nazis in Berlin's Reichstag last night. He was his reply to Cardinal Mundelein of Chicago, who accused Germany's government of "immorality" in the form of the Nazi-published "immorality" law.

The pope, who will be 80 Monday, sent an encyclical to Germany before Easter in which he accused the Hitler government of breaking the church-state concordat and encouraging pagan superstitions.

GERMAN PILGRIMS Today the pope's message was delivered to a group of German pilgrims who brought him greetings at the close of four-year years of life.

He said: "We are pleased to see that you come from a part of the great Christian family where very grave events are happening; where there is so much need for insisting on a Christian social life for the benefit of the family and for the people."

Barish Weather Reports Force Wheat Slump WINNIPEG, May 29.—Marking the second time this week that barish weather reports knocked down wheat prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, values slipped more than three cents today.

Six Naval Officers Killed, Several Wounded—II Duce Threatens

By PIERRE MAILLAUD

LONDON, May 29.—Six Italian naval officers were killed and several were wounded on Wednesday when four Italian warships on non-intervention patrol duty were bombed at Palma, Mallorca, by Spanish government planes, the Italian dispatch charged before the non-intervention committee here last night.

The British government is understood to have asked Valencia for an explanation, apparently setting on reports sent to London by the British destroyer Harvey, which was on the scene and witnessed the incident.

The German battleship Deutschland also was at Palma, an insurgent stronghold, at the time of the attack.

Premier Mussolini's spokesman declared Italy would heretofore be prepared to defend its non-war against such attacks, but wished to protect the incident as a violation of the neutrality control plan.

50 Killed, 100 Hurt in Barcelona Raid BARCELONA, Spain, May 29.—More than 50 persons were killed and 100 wounded by insurgent bombers in a raid on this Catalan capital early today.

The squadron of insurgent attack planes was driven off finally by anti-aircraft fire, but not until enormous damage had been effected. The bombers disappeared out to sea.

SIX FLIERS DIE, THREE HURT, IN FOUR ACCIDENTS LONDON, May 29.—Six fliers were killed and three others seriously injured today in four accidents during celebration of Empire air day.

And in a collision between two planes in the building severely. The dead in other accidents included Lieut. A. J. Robinson, Pilot A. Hudson, Flight Commander H. E. Power, Lieut. R. M. Kim.

Burlesque Shows Unmourned When Gotham Goes Pure

By GEORGE ROSS
Hollywood Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, May 29.—This is not a propitious moment to look for ragtime exhibits in New York cabarets. The class in night club anatomy has been summarily dismissed.

For club owners, who know that the municipal axis which recently cut down the city's burlesque houses, presently over their own heads and they, accordingly, are being pin and oiled.

The bubble dance, the striptease and the fan dance have been removed to a separate place in the basement, and in Broadway burlesque the girls are getting on more clothes than they ever have worn since the Goffing was invented.

This is a more exact driving for reform than the club owners had anticipated. A tour of the late spots that dot Broadway and the streets off the main artery reveal a surprising lack of indecency and nudity in new acts, more noticeable than most for its unassuming frankness, the management was so overcome by the sudden wave of purity, that it required the girls in the floor-show to line up in their street clothes.

Inspection to plain clothes make the rounds to detect any signs of adult undress. They ended at one place, where a group of girls, generally have little sympathy for the U.S. that insist up with burlesque, once the legitimate theatre always kept decently aloof from the province that celebrated the striptease and double entendre.

During the past week Broadway managers have improved upon the attitude that the crudest display of burlesque is no excuse for a Dungenish bill which would stifle the voice of legitimate drama.

CONGRATULATIONS, CAKES AND CANDIES! THE QUINTS ARE THREE YEARS OLD!

Here are at the gayest birthday party of 1937, which marks the day when the Dionne quintuplets began "growing" on four. Marie, left, has lifted one candle from her cake, and Cecile, next, is pleased to have lifted some icing on her thumb. But Emilie, centre, seems to have achieved both. And Annette and Yvonne are both trying the icing and finding it good. "Many happy returns" is the wish they're sending back to their many admirers all over the world.

Store Window Is Broken On Jasper

Believed by police to be the work of two transients, who intended to break into the store, a large plate-glass window in the Jasper Home Grocery, at 11404 Jasper avenue, was broken shortly after 2 a.m. Saturday. The window is valued at $125.

Clifford Sawyer, night man in the Penn Motors Garage adjoining the store, phoned police when he found the window broken after he rushed out to investigate the noise of the crash.

Stanley Burr, who was working nearby, told police that he heard the crash, rushed out on the street to look, and that two roughly dressed men who were standing in front of the window, ran down 114 street when they saw him.

OTTAWA TELLS ITS POSITION IN LOAN PLEA

Provincial Government Unassisted on Account of Bank Recommendation

OTTAWA, May 29.—The Dominion will be unable to accede to the request of the Alberta provincial government for a loan to assist in meeting a $1,000,000 bond maturity of the province falling due June 1, it is understood.

Hon. J. L. Riley, acting minister of finance, is away from Ottawa and a view was not ascertainable but the present request is regarded here as falling in the same category as those refused in the past.

ONLY FOR RELIEF
Under the Relief Act the Dominion is empowered to lend money to the provinces to help them bear their share of relief costs, but this does not include loans to meet bond maturities.

Finance Minister Dunning's proposal some time ago for a loan would have been subject to such loans possible by an amendment to the constitution, but the proposal was turned down.

Special votes were passed at the last session of parliament enabling the Dominion to lend $700,000 to Manitoba and $500,000 to Saskatchewan.

This was in pursuance of a request by the Bank of Canada that the Dominion assist those provinces in carrying on essential services until the royal commission to study the financial situation of the provinces is set up and makes a final report.

OWN ARRANGEMENTS
The bank did not recommend similar special provision for Alberta, however, as it held that the province had made its own arrangements to deal with its financial problems, including the cost of 20 per cent in interest rates by which the province lowered Alberta's debt charges by about $2,400,000.

Last year the Dominion twice refused Alberta loans to meet bond maturities.

The excursion train leaving Edmonton at 12 noon on Thursday June 2, for Calgary will be loaded to capacity, members of the special transportation committee report, large numbers coming from the district and northern constituencies, while scores of delegates and visitors will board the train at points between this city and Calgary. DROUGHT AREA GRINS: REACHES FOR UMBRELLAS

Rain Worth Millions Soaks Parched Districts in Two Provinces

MEDICINE HAT, May 29.—For more than eight hours yesterday soaking rains fell on the crop and range lands of Southern Alberta "drought" districts.

The fall here was recorded at 39 inch while in the Seven Persons district, 15 miles southwest of here, a full inch fell.

Heavy falls were also reported from Knapton, 60 miles north, Pinetown, 50 miles southwest and from Cypress Hills in the southeast corner of the province.

High winds lifted half the metal roof from the Saskatchewan Co-operative Livestock plant in Regina and carried it across the street. Wind broke a plate glass window in a downtown store and caused other damage.

SASKATOON, May 28.—Rain began to fall over a wide area in Central and Northern Saskatchewan last night. At 8:30 several points reported four hour rains, with every indication of continuing moisture.

Super-Sensitive Quake Graph, Cancer Progress Royal Society Subjects

TORONTO, May 29.—The Royal Society of Canada was told of a new earthquake recording instrument so sensitive it picks up vibrations of traffic several miles away yesterday.

Ronald A. Hodgson, seismologist at the Dominion observatory in Ottawa, told the physical sciences section of the Society the observatory had acquired one of the instruments.

VERTICAL TREMORS
It is called the Benioff seismograph and makes a record of vertical tremors only, that is those shocks which start at points in the earth and travel upwards.

The recording is photographic. Vibrations of the instrument cause a beam of light to move up and down along a piece of photographic paper fastened to a revolving drum. In the Benioff machine are two recording components, one for quakes of short duration and the other for those that last a long time.

One of the difficulties associated with older types of seismographs was that when the recording unit was opened the machine had to be stopped. The result was that if a quake occurred during the operation the record was lost and the operators left it alone as far as possible.

CITY RECORDS
With the Benioff instrument it will be possible for the seismologist to remove the record of a brief quake—they are usually short in duration—without stopping the machine. In Ottawa location it picks up tremors from the city almost continuously, tremors made by heavy trucks.

The medical division was told by H. J. Crook of the Building Institute in Toronto of work being done in an effort to discover an immunizing vaccine for prevention of cancer.

Mr. Crook read a paper prepared by himself and Dr. W. R. Frank.

Lovely Barbara Read Is Another Canadian Winning Movie Fame

Youthful Vancouver Beauty Shares the Spotlight With Winnipeg's Pride, Deanna Durbin, in Rise to Fame Within Last Six Months

Deanna Durbin, 14-year-old Winnipeg-born radio star, isn't the only Canadian breaking into the movies. Another is Barbara Read, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Read, 1066 St. James St., Vancouver, who plays one of the leading parts in "Three Smart Girls".

Thirteen years ago passengers on Vancouver's observation cars used to watch with delight a little girl who danced for them while the cars stopped for a few moments in Kerrisdale.

CLIMBED IN HALF YEAR
Talented and beautiful, Barbara has had a phenomenal rise in the past few months. She actually took part in half a year. Last summer she was discovered in a California Little Theatre group by Fred March, the well known actor, and his recommendation was given a part in the production.

As the picture progressed Barbara's role gained in importance and when the film emerged from the cutting room she was sharing honors with Deanna Durbin. Other producers saw her possibilities and she is now busy on "The Years Are So Long," now being filmed by Paramount.

St. Faith's Boy Scouts Look Forward Eagerly To Summer Activities

Looking over the past few weeks the members of the St. Faith's Boy Scouts are looking forward to the summer activities. The group has 31 members, all of whom have secured second class awards.

Each member of the troop has been issued a uniform and the scouting organization is now taking part in the summer activities at the same time filling out the parents with scouting training.

A full attendance was seen by the troop at the Coronation celebration both at the grandstand and at the Armory for the investiture ceremony of the Chief Scout of Alberta and during flag week when the lad hunt forth with great energy and ran their total flag sales up to $100.

The troop publishes its own paper, "Sunbeams," which was organized by the patrol leader of the Bulldogs, Dennis Quinn, editor, and his second, Ralph Miller, assistant editor. The paper has an exchange list with 200.

Four teams were entered by the troop in the May 14 events at Elgin. Though only the first aid team was successful in the competition. Others took part in soccer, basketball, and swimming.

Among activities which the troop has planned for the summer are a fishing league which will get under way next week, a swimming class, and a family picnic at the lake. The family picnic will be held on the last week in June, and a dance will be held with moving pictures in St. Paul's Parish Hall, June 10. The pictures will show all phases of scouting activity.

Already planning for the summer, the troop hopes to spend two weeks under canvas at Alberta.

Swarm of Tiny Craft To Take to the Air In Contest Here Soon

Members of the Alberta Model Fliers Club Show Planes With Which They Will Challenge All Comers at Airrome

"These are just a few" is the proud claim of the young model builders, Douglas Ireland, Allen Bruce, Arthur Ferguson, Lorne Dunworth, and James Pheasant, pictured above, with some of the model airplanes they have been constructing during the past few months.

Providing both an inspiration and a challenge to other groups or individuals interested in model plane building, the boys, with ten others, have entered a contest of model planes flying contest at the Edmonton airport on July 3.

The boys, all of them intimate friends and companions have spent hours at their favorite hobby, model plane building, and evidence of the result can be seen here. Only two were constructed with purchased kits, the remainder were fashioned piece by piece, some of the boys.

They are built to run off the ground under their own power and average a flying time of about 65 seconds, though the winner of the Moffat trophy, in the centre, has remained in the air as long as four and one-half minutes, and the 64-inch gasoline powered model, in the hands of Douglas Ireland, who built it, has flown for six minutes and a half to a height of 500 feet.

VALUABLE PRIZE OFFERED
"Yes sir," exclaimed a member of the group as he lovingly patted the model on the right that won the Waffelkopf trophy in 1935, "they will have to go some to beat this."

In the contest which will take place at the airrome on July 3 there will be three different events, each with two classes open to juniors and seniors. The first will be a rubber powered Rise Off the Ground contest and first prize will be a Baby Cyclone Engine donated by Radio Supply. The second event will be for a flying model, and the third for gliders.

The contest is open to all boys and girls in the province, and will be held at the airrome in W. Ireland, 10713 113 street.

Mrs. Kerr Dedicates Tree Given Guides as Coronation Souvenir

The tree-planting was the last in a series of coronation celebrations staged by the local Girl Guide Association. Present was Alberta's Chief Guide, Mrs. J. C. Bowen, with the lieutenant-governor.

BLOSSOM AND HER BABY MAKE APPEAL FOR ZOO

Blossom and her infant monkey are "at home" in one of the windows of the Hotel's Bay store this week; nearby are collection boxes for the Edmonton Zoo. Blossom says, "If you don't care how I live, at least fix up a nice home for my child."

The wee one is just three weeks old, and Blossom is a good mother. At times she even curls over the wires of her cage and looks in to see how the baby is getting on. She is a very pretty monkey, and her baby is a very pretty monkey.

Vignettes Of Victoria High

Signs of relief permeated the air when the Victoria High school, after a long and hard fight, secured the championship of the city in the annual basketball tournament.

The "gracious" name of the Argosy is expected next week. Individual pictures of the graduates, accompanied by a suitable epitaph, a message from their friends, and a Valedictory address will be among the main features.

Enthusiastic supporters of the tennis club, who have been organized for the first time this year, are fast learning to serve with assurance. The tennis club, who have been organized for the first time this year, are fast learning to serve with assurance.

Your Children

By OLIVE ROBERTS

I have been very much interested in the statement of Mrs. I. H. Huff, superintendent of a home for troubled girls in Oklahoma.

Huff asserts that the problem children can be cured if given their point by re-education. When a girl is straightened up and gains pride and a self assurance, she never did so again. After being trained in the habit of being obedient, she is a different person.

O. R. Barton

The point is one that I agree with most thoroughly. I advocate that the child be re-educated, that he or she be given a chance to be a different person.

This does not mean, necessarily, that he or she must be re-educated in a different environment, but rather that he must be re-educated in the habit of being obedient.

Children are very philosophical about clothes. They rather love their old comfortable sweaters and shoes. But they also like to feel that there is something behind the door to dress up in when the occasion demands.

In the old days, children had to preserve their best for Sunday. It was a grand custom and instilled a proper outlook. The very knowledge that something rather better hung in the closet, gave him a sense of well being, I advocate never. Never to use the best, and to leave a thrill for a special occasion is an excellent idea.

However, as clothes go, the parent who despairs of John's conduct, Mrs. Huff's idea of having said delinquents up a bit, to boost by the use of a new outfit, is a good behavior.

Perhaps it is a waste of material, but in such a case the end must necessarily justify the means.

TAKE OFFER LOW COST

The woman who fears to make a speech at her club with food remarkable courage in a new and becoming hair. The man who goes in to make a sale will find his charm and vocabulary at their best, if his shirt and tie are right, and his shoes what they ought to be.

It is the secret behind grooming, beauty-culture and style, the language of the race to look its best.

And so, the adult psychology being what it is, why not the children? I recommend not only to the parent of the problem child, but especially the inferior child, but this magic of attractive dressing, which is not necessarily expensive, but rather a matter of care and taste.

ANIMALS BEHAVE SAME WAY

And to carry the analogy further, even birds give their feathers and rats lick themselves clean. Watch a dog that has had a bath. He wags to tell the whole world about it. He licks a clean coat and won't strut when he is dirty.

Children are very philosophical about clothes. They rather love their old comfortable sweaters and shoes. But they also like to feel that there is something behind the door to dress up in when the occasion demands.

What Is Real Life?

By Nellie McClung

KATHLEEN STRANGE writes in the last chapter of her prize-winning book "With the West in Her Eyes," that the life on the farm is to her the real life.

And life on the farm, as set forth in the pages of this fascinating book, has been anything but easy. She tells of cold and heat, fatigue and discomfort, of going to bed so tired she could not sleep, of having a cow kick over the milk pail, the stool and the milk maid, blackening her eyes and bruising her body. She tells of being all ready, with her trunk packed to go back to England to see her mother, when there came a hail storm which ruined her trunk and her dress.

Through all this, the young English woman, enticed by a great magnificent crop of 50 acres which looked like $100,000—if the seed had not—but that was the "fabulous year" for grain seed—and they got 20 bushels of wheat and the thousands they should have had.

On the farm she was a partner of her husband's in his farm work and experience, now she is apart from him. He does the experience, she does the writing. The fact is, she is not a writer, she is a farmer. The fact is, she is not a writer, she is a farmer.

CASE NOT EXCEPTIONAL

Do you believe it? I do. I know it is true. And I know that her case is not exceptional. When people live in a house with a professional help, and Kathleen is free to do what she wishes. But the tang of life has been dulled, the excitement and interest is gone. The fact is, she is not a writer, she is a farmer.

First Aid to the Ailing House

CEMENT FLOOR OVER WOOD

By ROSE B. WILSON

QUESTION—I have an open porch with a wood floor, raised 3 feet from the ground. I should like to have a cement floor. Can I lay cement over the wood?

ANSWER—Not with any shrinking of the wood are likely to crack the cement. Also, there will be trouble in making a tight joint between the edge of the cement and the wall of the house. Water that seeps in will rot the wood underneath. The only chance is to lay heavy roofing felt over the wood, without nailing it. The cement is poured on top and reinforced with wire mesh. The floor may be enough of a cushion to prevent disturbing the cement.

OPAQUE WINDOW SCREENS

QUESTION—I have a ground floor apartment with screens on the windows. I have heard that painting the screens will prevent people outside from looking through. Is this so? What should I use?

ANSWER—Any kind of white paint dabbed on the screens will make them opaque during the day, when the room is darker than the street outside. But at night, when the room is lighted and it is dark outside, the painting will have no effect. You can use any kind of white or light-colored paint. It need not be evenly applied; large blotches do the trick. The paint should be thinned with turpentine, so that it will not dry too fast.

FINISH FOR LINOLEUM

QUESTION—I intend to put down good quality linoleum in my kitchen, and want to keep it looking new. I have heard that a special finish should be used. What should I use?

ANSWER—The most usual finish for linoleum is wax, either in paste or liquid form. It is applied with a kind that has a brush with a bright surface. Another finish is lacquer, which would be of a kind intended for linoleum. Shellac is too brittle. On linoleum it would crack under the pressure of the foot. Linoleum is made of linoleum and is finished with lacquer at the factory, and can be waxed. Other makes are finished with wax, which must be removed by wiping with turpentine or otherwise before being lacquered. Wax on wax linoleum can be hidden by re-waxing. With lacquering, a patch of a worn place may show.

HEROISM NOT DEAD

Heroism is not dead. Another war would send men out to kill and be killed, with flags flying and bands playing. A real flesh-and-blood enemy would rouse all the old instincts which now seem to be atrophied by these years of comfortable living. All we need is a motive.

"What a world we could make if we suddenly became as keen about helping people to live as we are in waiting on accomplishing their destruction. The idea is not new. Missionaries, ministers, scientists, teachers, doctors, nurses and innumerable other people unrecording and unnoticed are doing it now, daily and happily.

That is the whole theme of Christianity and it worked. It is not easy, humanity being what it is, but some of the ideal will run like a prize fire fanned by a strong wind, across the dead grass of our materialism.

Eat Fresh Vegetables And Fret for Beauty

By GLADYS GLAD

Do you know some of the tribes of the Sahara desert, I am told, the natives are very frugal. Some of them will eat a very simple meal of meat and vegetables. They will not eat anything but the best of the food. And how would you like to eat a "frugal diet" now, Miss, I will tell you.

In the Sahara, of course, fresh vegetables are not available. But in this country, where fresh vegetables are so plentiful, it is a pity that many people do not eat them. They are so good for you, and they are so beautiful. They are the life of the body, and they are the life of the soul.

People everywhere should add to their diets the fresh vegetables that are so plentiful in this country. They are so good for you, and they are so beautiful. They are the life of the body, and they are the life of the soul.

New Mountain Motor Highway— Takes Year's Work to Complete 17 Miles Scenic Mountain Highway in Alberta

Stretch from Banff to Jasper Will Wind Through Some of Most Rugged Scenery of Canadian Rocky Mountains—Will Have No Gasoline Stations On the Route

By JAMES MONTAGNES

What engineers claim will be the most spectacular scenic highway in this continent is now being built under great difficulty at the slow rate of 17 miles a year, between the two mountain resort centres, Banff and Jasper, in the Canadian Rocky Mountains. The 150-mile road passes through a region which never had a road, climbs over two mountain passes nearly 7,000 feet in height, and will be surrounded the entire route with unexcavated grades stretching 11,000 feet above sea-level.

BUILT BETWEEN PEAKS

The road, which is to be built in 1937 to 1940, will be the most spectacular scenic highway in this continent. It will be built between two mountain peaks, Banff and Jasper, in the Canadian Rocky Mountains. The road will be built in a region which never had a road, and will be surrounded the entire route with unexcavated grades stretching 11,000 feet above sea-level.

Road and extension will bridge the river that above the picturesque Athabasca Falls (left) on the Banff to Jasper road, part of the proposed road seen to all-weather surface is shown at right. The surveyors of the route have been travelling between the snow-capped mountains and glaciers through the Sawaspy Valley.

Surveyors have been travelling between the snow-capped mountains and glaciers through the Sawaspy Valley. The road will be built in a region which never had a road, and will be surrounded the entire route with unexcavated grades stretching 11,000 feet above sea-level.

POLICE YARD HAS RECORD OF 600,000

Finest Service Of Criminal
Edification Held By Scotland

EDMONTON, May 28.—Scotland Yard has been building the finest service of criminal edification held by Scotland. The road will be built in a region which never had a road, and will be surrounded the entire route with unexcavated grades stretching 11,000 feet above sea-level.

Library contains 500,000 prints, or over 600,000.

The appointment of Chief Inspector George Blackburn, of the West Riding police, as "Advisor for the Development of Police Records" is a link in a scheme to put the entire police records of the country at the disposal of any force which needs them.

The present fingerprint classification system is so perfect that the criminal record of a suspect can be turned up within five minutes of the receipt of the prints. A similar system will be built up among provincial forces.

Pure Schools' Costs

TORONTO, May 28.—Separate school boards have decided to close at "indefinite" dates, for economic ease. Teaching of boys' and girls' classes, and of girls' classes, will be continued until telephone lines cut.

Help Lancashire

BIRMINGHAM, May 28.—The A.T. Moulds has brought Lancashire to the attention of the public. The road will be built in a region which never had a road, and will be surrounded the entire route with unexcavated grades stretching 11,000 feet above sea-level.

BISHOP FEARS WHOLE WORLD IS BRUTALIZED

High Cleric Sees Cruelty
Among All Peoples
Growing

BRISA WHITE PRESS
LONDON, May 28.—The fear that the world is getting "hardened to cruelty and that human nature is becoming brutalized" is expressed by the Bishop of Chelmsford, Dr. Henry Wilson, in his Diocesan Chronicle.

"It is taken as a matter of course," he writes, "that if this country becomes involved in war, London will be drenched with poison gas and set on fire with incendiary bombs. The wholesale slaughter of women and children will be the major stroke of the next war. All the decency and civility have been squandered. The world is becoming more and more brutalized. The world is becoming more and more brutalized. The world is becoming more and more brutalized."

The crime might well be excused if he replied that if Russia, Germany, Italy and Spain are samples of Western civilization, the sooner it is destroyed the better. The moral clearly is that "civilization and progress, divorced from the control of Christianity, is the gravest danger of humanity."

"We are not nearly so wise as we thought," he writes, "and instead of our civilization and education turning the world into a paradise, we are rapidly making it into a hell."

"Text," he writes, "of the reason, poor, frustrated mad Europe is teaching us, and I believe we are learning."

New Babies To Have Names Burned In By Quartz Lamp

VANCOUVER, May 28.—Future Vancouver babies will have their names burned on their hands at birth with rays of a water-cooled quartz lamp; it was announced today after a meeting of the board of directors of the Vancouver General Hospital last night.

This removes any possibility of babies going to the wrong parents. The names will be burned on the hands of the babies at birth, and after that time can be brought back to the lamp.

Overseas Visit Turgeon Wheat Group Delayed

REGINA, May 28.—With the proposed overseas visit to study malaria in Great Britain and Europe, under the Turgeon-Royal grant, the overseas visit is delayed until the summer months.

Bearing five larger varieties and several other new exhibits, the three-week session in Regina closed yesterday.

ALBERTA'S GREATEST SATURDAY COMIC PAGES

EDMONTON, ALBERTA, MAY 29, 1937.

AT ONE TIME, WAS ONE OF THE MOST NUMEROUS OF ALL BIRDS, AND RANGED OVER THE GREATER PART OF THE FORESTED AREAS OF NORTH AMERICA.

STORIES OF THE AMAZING NUMBERS OF THESE BIRDS TAX THE IMAGINATION.

ALEXANDER WILSON, FATHER OF AMERICAN ORNITHOLOGY, WITNESSED A FLIGHT, IN WHICH PASSENGER PIGEONS, FORMING A LIVING CLOUD ONE MILE IN WIDTH, PASSED OVERHEAD IN AN UNBROKEN PROCESSION, FOR NEARLY THREE HOURS!

COPY, 1937 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

AT NIGHT, THE PIGEONS FLOCKED TOGETHER IN TREES TO ROOST, CAUSING GREAT DAMAGE TO BRANCHES, TREES WITH TRUNKS TWO FEET IN DIAMETER BROKE DOWN UNDER THE ENORMOUS WEIGHT.

BUT MAN TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THEIR FLOCKING HABITS, WITH EVERY AVAILABLE WEAPON, GAME HUNTERS SLAUGHTERED THE BIRDS AS THEY RESTED AFTER NIGHTFALL.

T.M. BY U.S. PAT. OFF.

INCREDIBLE AS IT MAY SEEM, THE BEGINNING OF THE 20TH CENTURY FOUND ONLY A FEW SCATTERED FLOCKS REMAINING! IN 1914, THE LAST PASSENGER PIGEON ON EARTH DIED IN A ZOO IN CINCINNATI.

BOY, THAT'S AN IMPORTANT TEST WE'RE GONNA HAVE TOMORROW!! I HOPE I GET A PASSING GRADE!

IT'S MOSTLY HISTORICAL DATES WE HAVE TO REMEMBER!

SAY, I HAVE A TERRIBLE TIME REMEMBERING WHEN COLUMBUS DISCOVERED AMERICA!

THAT'S EASY TO REMEMBER, IF YOU USE A LITTLE RHYME!

ALL YA GOTTA REMEMBER IS THIS RHYME: "IN FOURTEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY TWO COLUMBUS SAILED THE OCEAN BLUE!"

GEE, THAT'S A CINCH!

"IN FOURTEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY TWO COLUMBUS SAILED THE OCEAN BLUE!"

WHAT ARE YOU MUMB- BLING ABOUT?

HE'S TRYING TO REMEMBER A HISTORICAL DATE!

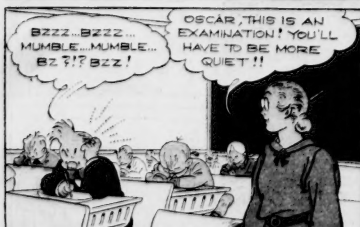

"IN FOURTEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY TWO COLUMBUS SAILED THE OCEAN BLUE!"

TIME TO GET UP FOR SCHOOL, OSCAR!

DO YA THINK YOU CAN REMEMBER THAT DATE, OSSIE?

IT'S A CINCH! "IN FOURTEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY TWO COLUMBUS SAILED THE OCEAN BLUE!"

BZZZ... BZZZ... MUMBLE, MUMBLE... BZ?!? BZZ!

OSCAR, THIS IS AN EXAMINATION! YOU'LL HAVE TO BE MORE QUIET!!

THE ONLY QUESTION I HAD TROUBLE WITH WAS THE YEAR COLUMBUS SAILED FOR AMERICA!

TOO BAD YOU DIDN'T KNOW THE RHYME THAT TAG TOLD ME!

WHAT RHYME?

"IN FOURTEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY THREE COLUMBUS SAILED THE DEEP BLUE SEA!"
